Christians: A Call to Arms!

Dan McClung's Commitment for 2015:

- ✓ Learn all I can about the Big Picture method of sharing the Gospel.
- ✓ Establish Classes to teach myself & others to present the Big Picture.
- ✓ Have Brent Hunter come here to teach us from what he has learned.
- ✓ I commit to doing at least FIVE (5) presentations of the Big Picture in 2015.
- ✓ I commit to using the Big Picture and the full message of the N.T. to be a soul winner for Christ.

Remember...

WE HAVE BEEN TAUGHT TO TEACH,
WON TO WIN,
AND SAVED TO SERVE!

Colossians 1:28

We proclaim Him,
admonishing
every man
and teaching
every man
with all wisdom, so that we may present
every man
complete in Christ.

How do we do this?

- We need some Peter, Paul, & Priscilla's (Acts 18:26)
 - To actively present the Big Picture to “seekers”
- We need some Andrew's (John 1: 40-42)
 - To invite “seekers” to see the Big Picture
- We need some Barnabas's (Acts 11:22-24)
 - To encourage, uplift, & show hospitality to new converts

What the Big Picture has meant to me:

The first things would be that I have my faith reinforced by going over the material. The second thing is that I have the power to share the gospel with the great helps that we have – without fear – which is the main problem I have had. Sharing GOD my way opens the door for me to bring them to asking questions.

It's a great way to share the great gift we have with others.

Nancy Brown

The "Big Picture" makes it so much easier to inquire of people if they're interested in what the Bible is about, and that it can be presented in one hour of their time.

In the first presentation, my friend was defensive, but when he saw I was not there to argue, he sat back and listened. He did say at one point, "I never knew that!", so I felt the Gospel was reaching him.

I have had interest from other people, so I'm not discouraged.

Thank you for being so willing to avail yourself to present this Big Picture of the Bible.

Your grateful sister,

Nancy

DeLynn Ennis

Having access to and knowledge of The Big Picture of the Bible, gives me confidence in talking to someone about the Bible. With the different formats for sharing His Word with others, and the clear pictures that speak for themselves, I feel like I have in my hand a multifaceted tool for evangelism. It sharpened my focus, and helps clarify, even to those of us already in Christ, the Real Gospel Message.

Thanks, Dan.

In Him,

DeLynn

I taught The Big Picture in the High School/College class on Sunday mornings and it provided an excellent overview of the wonder that is the Word of God as well as finishing up with a clear, biblical call to action on the part of those being taught. I did not cover it in 60 minutes as is recommended but rather took 3 Sundays to get through it since I wanted to linger on some of the important parts of the presentation. When I taught this in class we had some visitors and Nick Windsor was just starting to accompany us as well. I was not told this directly but I believe I have heard that us covering The Big Picture in class played a part in his subsequent baptism.

Mitch Brown

"Upon first hearing about the Big Picture Presentation I immediately realized that here was a tool that was easy to promote and easy to deliver, being able to deliver an abbreviated version of the gospel within a single sitting. Not only was the text pliable to various uses, but the graphics were great in helping others to understand God's word and His requirements for salvation. It also made it possible to make the presentation an open Bible experience."

Michael Goins

The BP has given me purpose in my service for the lord. I am not one to stand up in front of the congregation. However, one on one or small groups I tend to like. This gave me an avenue to reach others and to do the Lord's work. More importantly I think it has pointed me in a direction to initiate, nurture and lovingly have a substantive discussion about the bible, what it is about and why it is important to our lives. It has also helped me to determine who is a true seeker and ready to find out the truth and who may not be ready for deep thought on the subject.

The Greatest need: Personal Evangelism

Who will YOU lead to Christ in 2016?

- Can you name THREE persons who need to hear the “good news” of the Gospel?
- What will you DO in 2016 to make that happen?
- What TOOLS or TALENTS will you use?
- A recent survey found that 90% of un-churched people said they would attend services if invited by a respected family member or friend.
- Only 20% report ever being invited by anyone!

What can we do...?

To be engaged as rescuers
of lost sinners ?

To be a light to a dark world ?

To do the work of spreading the good news of the gospel ?

To bring souls to Christ ?

Learning the Bible through an Engaging Lesson

Things Everyone Needs to Know About the Message of the Bible

Intentionally we need to give background to the last passage, changing the overall message or theme of the Bible provides direction for deeper study as well as to be informed of the Bible's overall message.

Consider some amazing facts about the Bible:

- It is not just one book, but a collection of sixty-six books of law, poetry, history, prophecy, and apocalyptic (Old Testament – 22 Old Testament)
- It was authored by over 40 men with varying degrees of education, different personalities, and diverse cultures.
- It was developed over a period of about 1,500 years.
- It was developed over a period of about 1,500 years.

There are many strong reasons for the acquisition of the Bible that our world could consider the fields of knowledge and science. One of the most important reasons for the Bible is that it is the only book that has been used as a source of knowledge and wisdom for over 2,000 years. The Bible is the only book that has been used as a source of knowledge and wisdom for over 2,000 years.
